Naples, March 13.

THE two Men of War that ſailed from hence a few Days ago, and which were obliged by violent Storms to return into Port, put to Sea again Yeſterday Morning on a Cruize againſt the Barbary Pyrates, who greatly interrupt the Navigation all along the Coaſt of this Kingdom.

Leghorn, March 15. We are informed by our laſt Advices from Baſtia, that the Chiefs of the Malecontents of the Iſland of Corſica continue to aſſemble, in order to agree upon ſome Form of Government, and how to behave to the Genoeſe after the French Forces have left that Iſland; and although nothing was abſolutely determined, yet it is generally believed that their Intention is to renew the War. And by Letters from Genoa we hear, that the Chevalier de Chauvelin, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from France to that Republick, only waits for an Account of the Embarcation of the French Troops from Corſica, before he ſets out for Turin, at which Court he is appointed to replace the Marquiſs des Iſſarts, who, on Account of his ill State of Health, has ſollicited and obtained his Letters of Revocation.

Rome, March 17. On Tueſday laſt died here Cardinal Antoine-Xavier-Gentili, in the 72d Year of his Age. The Hereditary Prince of Anſpach is ſtill here, and employs himſelf daily in viewing the Curioſities of this City.

Parma, March 19. Orders are ſent to Colorno for repairing and getting ready the Apartments for the Reception of the Infant Duke our Sovereign, who propoſes to ſpend great Part of the Summer at that Palace.

Toulon, March 21. The armed Frigat, and twenty Tranſports, that have been equipping in this Port, in order to fetch the French Troops from Corſica, are now ready, and only wait the Return of a Courier from Verſailles, before they put to Sea.

Prague, March 24. 'Tis confidently reported, that the Troops quartered in this Kingdom will form a Camp in the Summer, under the Command of Prince Piccolomini.

Vienna, March 25. On Monday laſt, being the Feaſt of St. Joſeph, whoſe Name the eldeſt Archduke bears, their Imperial Majeſties received the Compliments of the Nobility and Gentry on that Occaſion, and afterwards dined in Publick. The next Day the Emperor, accompanied by ſome of the principal Lords of the Court, ſet out for Stammerſtorff, in order to take the Diverſion of Hunting in that Neighbourhood.

Copenhagen, March 26. Preparations are making at Court for celebrating the King's Birth-Day on Saturday next; and on the 5th of next Month the Court will remove to Frederſbourg. The King having approved of the Plan for erecting a new Port at the Point of Nieho, they are going to begin the ſame immediately.

Stockholm, March 27. The Commiſſioners of the Admiralty have, at the Requeſt of the French Ambaſſador, ſent ſeveral Divers and others to the Iſland of Aland, in order to recover what they can of the Cargo of a French Ship that foundered off that Iſland in December laſt.

Munich, March 28. The Elector of Cologn, who has been here for theſe three Weeks paſt, propoſes to ſet out next Wedneſday on his Return Home.

Berlin, March 31. The King has given the Command of the Caſtle of Regenſtein, in the Principality of Halberſtadt, to M. Ramcke, heretofore Lieutenant-Colonel of the Regiment of Foot of Borck. Laſt Tueſday, being the Anniverſary of the Birth of the Queen-Mother, who then entred into the 67th Year of her Age, the ſame was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence; the King came himſelf from Potzdam, with a great Retinue of General Officers, &c. on Purpoſe to compliment her on that Occaſion, and did not return till the next Morning. We have received Advice, that M. de Voltaire, who ſet out from hence ſome Days ago for Leipſick, is ſeized with a dangerous Diſorder. By our laſt Letters from the New Marche we are informed, that the Village, and beautiful Houſe of Neupelzig, belonging to M. Schack, were both deſtroyed by [illegible] dreadful dreadful Fire that broke out there on the 19th Inſtant, which ſpread ſo faſt, that 'twas with the greateſt Difficulty that Gentleman ſaved his Life, after being very much burnt.

Duſſeldorp, April 2. They write from Saltzbourg, that they have not as yet been able to elect a new Prince-Archbiſhop, the Votes being at preſent equally divided between the Biſhop of Laubach and the Biſhop of Gorck.

Amſterdam, April 4. They have agreed to ſend out the following Ships this Year on the Whale Fiſhery, viz. DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quinseies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Esdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
